The S. K. C. Bugle, a bright little organ of South Kentucky College, appeared Tuesday for the first time. It is to be published weekly with Gordon W. Cullum, editor, and Robt. W. Wallace, associate editor. Jas. E. Chappell is reporter for the boys' department and Miss Hattie Fields fills the place provision for the girls' department. Pulliam Smith is the athletic reporter. MRS. NANNIE WILLIAMS,

Mother of Mrs. G. H. Taylor Dies in Kansas City.

Mrs. G. H. Taylor received a telegram Sunday that her mother, Mrs. Nannie Williams, of Kansas City, was very ill. She left immediately, but before reaching Kansas City another telegram announced the death of Mrs. Williams. She was 45 years old. She visited her daughter about 4 years ago and made many friends here who will learn with much regret of her demise. She was a member of the Christian church.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

One leg was strained so badly that he is quite helpless and will be confined to his bed for some time. He is nearly 85 years old and his advanced age will make his recovery slow.

WARM NUMBER

Will Be The Magistrate's Race In Fruit Hill District.

Both parties have made nominations for justice of the peace in Fruit Hill magisterial district, and a hot contest is on, which involves a complete set of appointive officers who are appointed by the Fiscal court. Most of the present officials are Democrats and the Republicans will do their utmost to get possession of the Fiscal court in order to turn out the Democrats and put in their own men as workhouse keeper, poorhouse keeper, county physician, road supervisor and county treasurer.

The Republican nominee is James M. Clark, of Crofton.

The Democrats on last Saturday nominated Lee B. King, of Pon. The same men ran last year and King was elected by 46 majority. Subsequently he resigned, as he was postmaster at Pon, and his brother, N. O. King, is holding by appointment.

The district embraces the precincts of East Crofton, Baker's Mill, Bluff Spring and Dogwood. It is close and doubtful.

Esq. King will take the stump and speak all over the district.

—OCTOBER 10, 1902—

We are authorized to announce

R. C. CRISMAN.

On Christian county as a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture for Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party, Election November, 1903.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS, JUDGE THOS. J. NUNN, OF HOPKINS COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS,
HON. A. O. STANLEY,
OF HENDERSON COUNTY.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE 8TH
MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT,
LEE B. KING.

Gerald Finn is likely to run for Attorney General.

Roosevelt's conference with mine and labor officials to settle the coal strike was a flat failure. The coal men refused all overtures.

Solomon Lewis, colored, aged 102, married a young negro woman 80 years of age, in Yorkville, Va., the other day.

Winston Churchill, the novelist, has been nominated for the legislature by the Republicans of Cornish, N. H.

Tom Johnson has accepted a challenge from Mark Hanna to engage in a joint debate. Mark must regard the situation desperate.

Every Democratic newspaper in the First district will support Col.
Hendrick and it will be pretty near the same way in the Second.

Gen. Bragg, who talked too much at Havana, has been transferred to the Hong Kong consulate, swapping places with Wm. A. Rublee.

The Coal Trust is giving the country an object lesson at a very opportune time. If Teddy really wants to fight the trusts, the people should see that he is backed by an anti-trust House.

Hon. N. W. Utley, President of the State Senate, is acting as Gov.
Beckham while Gov. Beckham is attending a horse show in Nashville.
One great trouble about these horse shows is that they are over so soon.

The Louisville Post is the only paper in Kentucky that thinks Beckham is eligible for re-election and the Post will not support him if he is renominated. There may be others but they are silent on the subject.

A Pennsylvania strike beat Harrison in 1892 and a Homestead Riot this year would make another drop in Republican stock. The conviction is growing that the Democratic party is the only one to fight the trusts.

John F. Bible, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor of Michigan, is a son-in-law of Mr.
John H. Bell, of this city. He is a wagon manufacturer and one of the most active young Democratic leaders of his state. He is worthy of still higher honors and we hope to see him go in on the coming tidal wave.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs.
They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and dependency.

"I had pains in my back, could not sleep and when I got up in the morning I was worse than the sick horse. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and now I can sleep and get up feeling rested and able to do my work. I attribute my cure entirely to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. J. N. Fenn, care H. S. Copeland, Pike Road, Ala.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
and Pills

Cure kidney and liver troubles, relieve the back, and build up the whole system.

Col. Hendrick's speech here Monday solidified this county for him before a doubt. A few of the Beckham appointees—but not all of them by any means—may make a show of opposition, but Christian county is no more a doubtful county than McCracken. No politician with sense enough to lead a blind goose to water will try to carry Christian county for a man in a distant part of the State, who will have to defend his eligibility, his competency and his administration.

In the October Everybody's there begins a series of articles on "Steamboat Days on the Mississippi and the Missouri Rivers." Life on the great waterways was full of adventure. The first article tells of the pilots who navigated the vessels and of their extraordinary skill in locating channels. There is a remarkable story of a race for a wife between the helmsmen of rival steamers.

Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, who lives in the mining belt, is scared out of his boots over the strike, caused by the oppression of the coal trust. He says unless it is settled very soon, Congress is sure to be Democratic, which means that the butt cut of Ohio Republicanism is about ready to do the Henderson act.

With three Western districts solid for Hendrick and three Eastern ones solid for Black, the contest for Governor will really have to be fought out in the five central districts.

Speaking of the suffrage question in the South, 350 negroes and about the same number of white voters voluntarily disfranchised themselves Tuesday by failing to register in Hopkinsville.

A Wisconsin legislator was pursued by a madman and compelled to climb a tree and remain in it all night. There are some Kentucky politicians who know what it is to be run up a tree.

A handsome granite monument erected in Louisville to the memory of Dr. John A. Broadus, by Capt.
W. F. Norton, Jr., was unveiled Wednesday.

Mrs. W. R. Brumfield.

Mrs. Myrtle Brumfield, wife of Mr. W. R. Brumfield, died at the home of her grandfather, Prof. F. H.
Renshaw, on South Virginia street, Tuesday. She was formerly Miss Myrtle Diuguid and was 20 years. Rev. H. D. Smith and H. C.
Beckett conducted services yesterday afternoon and the interment took place in Hopewell Cemetery.

G. A. Roberts of Dintner, Ill., suffered four years with a bad stomach and could not eat. He lost 65 pounds. Two bottles of Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin restored his appetite, cured his stomach trouble and today he is well and heartily end says he owes his health to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

KENTUCKY'S CENTER

Near Unexplored Cavern Where Boone Spent One Winter.

United States geological surveyors, who have been in Mercer and adjacent counties for the past few months, have just located the geological center of Kentucky on the farm of James Spillman, near the famous old "Shawnee Run Church." The spot is near the unexplored cavern in which Daniel Boone is said to have spent one winter while fighting the Indians. The "Shawnee Run Church" is the oldest in the State, having been erected about 120 years ago.

FOUND DEAD

George Petree, Colored, Victim of A Fit.

George Petree, a well known colored man and democrat of this city, died Monday night alone in his house on Mechanic street. A neighbor found him dead the next morning. The coroner's verdict was that he died of epilepsy. His wife died a few years ago and he lived alone. He was about 55 years old and a carpenter of good character.

Of Interest to Women.

Women who have themselves suffered from the evil effects of constipation and indigestion will be interested in the following letter from a father whose daughter was given up to die by two physicians:

"My daughter has suffered from indigestion for the past five years and has tried nearly everything that she could hear of for such trouble.
She was confined to her bed when she began taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and after taking one 50 cent bottle she is able to walk a mile at a time and during the day yesterday walked 3 1/2 miles.
I feel like praising Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin because two doctors told me I feel that she is on a fair road to permanent relief.—Respectfully, J. H. M. Crocker, Nixon, Tenn., Aug. 6, 1900.

sold in fifty cent and $1.00 bottles,

BOTH SYNODS

Of Presbyterian Church will Meet in Lexington.

Rev. F. L. Goff, of the First Presbyterian church and Rev. W.
L. Nourse, of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, will leave Sunday night for Lexington, where the two Presbyterian Synods of Kentucky will hold their regular annual session next week. Wednesday, Oct.
15, has been set apart to celebrate jointly the centennial of the organization of the Synod, which occurred at Lexington Oct. 14, 1902.

One of the objects in which the two Synods are jointly interested is the establishment of a high grade college for girls. The need for such an institution seems apparent when it is known that there is not more than possibly one such school in Kentucky which have the subject in hand, and of which Rev. W. L.
Nourse, D. D., and the Rev. Francis Lee Goff are members, are to meet in Lexington on Monday before the meeting of the synod.

A Typical South African Store.

O. K. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testimony to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This must surely be a record!" For sale C. K. Wyly.

TWO ECLIPSES.

One or Sun and Other of Moon in October.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon on Oct. 16, visible all over North and South America, western portions of Europe and Africa, and in northeast Asia. The eclipse will be a kind of midnight show in North America, as it begins at 11:17 p. m. central time, the east rim of the moon entering earth's shadow at that time. By 1:30 on the shadow of the 17th the shadow will be over.

The fifth and last eclipse for the year will be a partial eclipse of the sun on October 31. This eclipse will not be visible in this country.

The Royal Plinth and the Royal Disease.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—it is bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the body substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cure of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than that one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative—consumption.

SPOON UP

week, beginning on Tuesday.

There are about 35 members of them are expected to be present.

The sessions of the body will be held in the Christian church and a number of interesting topics are on the program for discussion.

DOINGS AT S. K. C.

The "S. K. C. Bugle" made its appearance Tuesday and was a pleasant surprise to its 125 subscribers.

The editor, Sergt. Bugler G. W. Cullum; co-editor, Robert Wallace; and business manager, Ben T. Frank, and the other members of the editorial staff deserve a great deal of credit for the splendid little college paper. Mr. Frank, the hustling business manager, is busy taking additional subscriptions since the first issue. He has also received a number of advertisements from the merchants and other business men of the city.

The new drums for the battalion drum corps have arrived, making eight in all, and the cadets are making some good noise for beginners, and they promise to supply the battalion with good music to march by. The bugle corps will probably be appointed this week.

The college colors have been changed from blue and white to black and silver gray, the colors representing in the main the colors of the uniforms of both departments of the college.

About all of the cadets have ordered college caps in the college colors with "S. K. C." on the front.

The barracks annex to McCarty Hall is complete, rooms nicely papered and furnished. The boys who have been boarding in the neighborhood will soon be comfortably situated in their new quarters.

The young ladies' basketball team has interesting games in the gymnasium.

The co-editor's article in "The Bugle" on "Unity of College Spirit" is splendid. He rightly says that "college spirit is essential to real college life." Every pupil should be proud of S. K. C., the initials of the "dear old college on the hill." He should wear his college colors and give his college yells and sing the college songs whenever appropriate.

The young ladies' orchestra was organized Tuesday evening. Some good talent is contained therein.

The young men's orchestra is faithful to practice each Tuesday evening.

The foot ball team is in splendid shape and promises to interest any team it may play this season.

The baseball team for next spring has been organized. J. Gill Edwards was chosen captain. A better captain and player is not to be found in these parts. The team will be under the management of Athletic Association.

The debating societies and the class clubs will be organized this week.

Capt. Head, of Co. C, was [able to report for duty Monday, after a short illness.

Sergt. Whitlow of the drum corps is visiting in Guthrie.

Beautiful Complexions.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

MRS. MARIA JOHNSON.

Aged Woman Dies of Consumption Near White Plains.

Mrs. Maria Johnson, wife of Mr. Ben F. Johnson, of this county, near White Plains, died Wednesday night, after a long illness, of consumption, aged about 60 years. Rev. H. C. Beckett preached the funeral yesterday morning and the interment took place in the family burying ground.

OFFICER RESIGNS.

Lieut. Twyman Will Quit the Police Force.

Officer Joe K. Twyman, lieutenant of the force with night duty, has resigned to take effect to-morrow night. He will engage in the insurance business, both fire and life.

In Memory of Mary Ware.

Standing on the threshold of womanhood—18 summers behind her—she has bid farewell to all earthly things and gone to the beyond, where pain and sickness cannot enter.

She was all truth and love and loveliness. And it is well such pure sweet ones should die upon the earth there is a blossom loss. But, oh! there is a star on high.

Dear, sweet, suffering Mary, how our hearts ached and throbbed when you were borne into the church. When loving and tender hands brought to your memory a wilderness of beautiful flowers. Every bud, every blossom, representing in its purity a sweet token of love and sympathy. What eloquence in this world as effective and so powerful as a pure sweet life, with its power of love, its gentleness of spirit, appealing to kind and kin; and we do not wonder at the flowers and tears. Yet but 18 years of age and for four years consumption had fastened its cold, icy fingers upon her, and in pain and suffering still, the character, the strength of mind, the veracity of hope rose even upon a bed of death, and shed a ray of brightness, that never failed to cheer and strengthen all who came in contact with her. "A' gloss showing beyond the purest brightness of Parian marble."

To the loved ones who stood beside her in her afflictions—father, who loved her to idolatry, and failed not to do all in his power to comfort "his child" and restore her back to health. Her sisters, with a fealty and untiring devotion, giving away everything for love of sister. Her friends, who never forgot her; we extend to all our unbounded sympathy in their bereavement.

But to a "better land" she has gone, to watch and wait the coming of those she has left with tears and sobs; when in the brightness of the morning an eternity will begin, with its boundless love and eternal joys. W. R. H.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Clay Street.

The following books will be among the ones recommended to be ordered for the library: Martha Finley's Grandmother Elsie, Elsie on the Hudson, Elsie in the South, Elsie at Nantucket, Donald and Dorothy, Mary M. Dodge: On the Kentucky Frontier, Jas. Otis: Going West, O. Optic: Down South, O. Optic: Capt. Courageous, R. Kipling: The Story Hour, K. D. Wiggin: The Jessamy Bride, Moore: City of Seven Hills, Harding: Battle Grand, Glasgow: Sonny, Ruth Stuart: In the Wasps' Nest, C. T. Brady: and Flight of Pony Baker, W. D. Howells. The list will be completed some time this week and the books ordered immediately.

The colored map work done in Miss Clifton's room is fine. Last week some of the children were at work making maps of mountain scenery; others were making maps of N. A. in charcoal. Children who are gifted in drawing and coloring in this grade are Bessie Bagby, Carman Matthews, Maude Helsley, Claude Eggleton, Gertrude Ryan, Susie Matthews, Katie West and Ennis Wiley.

Miss Mary Penn took her grade, the third, of forty pupils, out in the county a few evenings ago for specimens for nature study. Since then the children have been greatly interested in studying and dissecting the grasshoppers, craw-fab, crickets, frogs, butter-flies, etc., which they found. Some of those who seem very much interested in the work are Alice Long, Joe Matthews, Joe Steile, Allen Lander, Virginia Grau and Millard Shryer.

Miss Daisy Rice took her grade out Wednesday afternoon to see how nature gets ready for winter.

Prof. Alexander has a 12th year literature class now. The work is Nineteenth Century Literature and is the work to be done when an entire 12th grade is established. This additional grade is needed and we hope to have it in the near future.

The astronomy class met Wednesday evening with their teacher, Miss Mills, to do the first telescope work of the season. They studied Jupiter, Saturn and the moon.

Miss Susie Rutherford has been absent several days, on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Steele. Miss Annie Faxon has been teaching for her and has made an excellent supply, we hope, however, to have Miss Susie back in a few days.

There will be a number of transfers from the fifth grade in Clay school to the fifth grade in Virginia school, on account of the overcrowded condition here.

Do You Want to Yawn?

Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness and for a blood purifying tonic there is nothing as good. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's."

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

UNDER date of January 10, 1902, Dr. Hartman received the following letter:

"My wife had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past 25 years.

"Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing.

"She also was passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life. In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of 25 years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me.

"Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Success to you and your remedies."

John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:

"I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. In my rounds as a traveling man I am a walking advertisement for Peruna and have induced many people during the past year to use Peruna with the most satisfactory results. I am still cured of catarrh."

John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo. When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people. This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safe-guard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that meets these cases exactly.

Such cases cannot be treated locally; nothing but an effective systemic remedy could cure them. This is exactly what Peruna is.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

NOT SO WISE AFTER ALL.

How a College Student's Pa Punctured a Rather Windy "Besites."

Back from the day's hard work in the wheat field, the disconcerted student sat down to interview the young man who was home from college in quest of a brief vacation and more cash, says the New York Herald.

"I do not comprehend the meaning of many words which have appeared in your letters," complained the parent. "For instance, in your last letter you wrote this: 'Financial besites are on the blink again.' I comprehend 'the blink,' that is what your education is on up to date, but 'besites' is beyond me. Explain."

The young man smiled a superior smile and gracefully lighted a tinted cigarette. He said:

"Besites' is a new word in the language and can be used as a substitute for all the other words—or, rather, it is a word which may be used to express the universe in its infinite entirety and in minute detail; anything and everything, separately or together, is 'besites.' The purpose of 'besites' is to relieve monotony of diction in the classics of the future."

"Thus, the reformer will protest against the 'besites' of political abuse; historians will allude to the ancient Roman 'besites' of Julius Caesar; the poet will write the sweet 'besites' of the springtide; even the person will minister to the spiritual 'besites' of his flock—all the various entities in literature, science, religion and art will be known as the intellectual 'besites.' But that is not all."

"You don't say!"

"Besites' are also people and things. For instance, in your distinguished person you represent my own parental 'besites.' Ha! ha!"

"Indeed!"

"And you are 'besites' in a general sense."

"Am I?"

"You eat 'besites,' drink 'besites' and engage in 'besites.' Merely 'besites' comprises all the 'besites,' and it is very odd 'besites' that you should be the 'besites' under the remarkable 'besites.' Ha! ha!"

The young man laughed uproariously, for he was tickled by the fun he was having with the old man. As the latter rose to answer the dinner bell, he remarked:

"You needn't go back to that college. I don't believe you are just cut out for the classical 'besites.' You can report for more appropriate 'besites' in the wheat field with the rest of us at four a. m. to-morrow."

FIRST LINES IN A PLAY.

Actors and Actresses Find It Distasteful to Undertake Opening Part.

"The actor or actress who happens to be first on the list, the member who has to say the first lines, has a hard time of it," said a man who takes a great interest in theatricals, and who appears occasionally behind the footlights, to a writer for the New Orleans Times-Democrat, "and to many men and women it is a perfectly manly and of course, there is a good reason for this. In the first place, the first lines are perfectly without any sort of meaning, so far as the audience is concerned. Even if the play is a familiar one, and if the auditors have seen it often before, the minor parts are not remembered, and they have no sort of sympathy with the fellow who is forced to start the thing going. There is another thing in this connection which must not be overlooked. As a rule, the audience has not settled down well when the curtain goes up at the beginning of the first act. There is a deal of noise, and bustle, and buzzing talk in the theater and not one-third of the persons composing the average audience can even hear the first lines. Now, when one remembers these two factors we can easily understand the difficulties under which the actor labors when he launches the performance by repeating the first lines of the play. It is a mean job and no man likes it, no matter how old he may be in the business. Actors and actresses want the sympathy of the audience at all times, and when this is withheld they are simply climbing uphill. In the very nature of things they cannot have the sympathy of the beginning of the show, and so there you are."

"That reminds me," said a listener, "of a rather funny experience I had some time ago while taking part in an amateur performance in this city. In one of the acts I was cast in a rather anomalous role. I had to do a wailing tune, and the lines simply blazed with love's fire, and the man who wrote the play provided for some rather vigorous scrambling on my part. The young lady who was the object of my affection was to be reclining at the foot of a stairway, and I had to enter into some sort of a little tussle with her. I started my part all right by grabbing her, and she was to speak the first line. It was very short. But somehow she would not say it. I kept up my part of the game. It was her time to say, 'Why, it's dark,' and she said, 'Say it.' Seeing that she did not take the cue I whispered again, 'Why, it's dark,' and she said again, with some show of impatience and annoyance, 'Say it.' I was still tussling with her. The situation was something fearful. We had both begun to reddens, and I felt like sinking behind the wings or dropping through the floor, and she looked at me as if she might be contemplating something equally as desperate. We kept whispering and tussling. 'It's your line,' I said to her. She chanced it by saying, 'Why, it's dark,' and I never felt better in my life than I did on that occasion. I never heard sweeter or more welcome words. The balance of the little dialogue went along smoothly enough. Before the wings, a little later on, the young lady told me she would have sworn the line was mine. She could not explain why it was that she had become confused, and I could not either, unless her confusion was due to my own conduct, for I confess that I probably overacted my part when I grabbed her as she was reclining at the foot of the steps. This probably disconcerted her somewhat and made her think I should repeat the first line."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce
MR. WEBB C. BELL,
Of Christian County, a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the First Railroad District of Kentucky, and in the office of the Democratic party, Election Nov. 1902.

SAGE GIVES WARNING.

Nestor of Wall Street Sees Peril in Formation of Great Industrial Combines.

Russell Sage holds some positive views on the trust question, which are completely at variance with those held by J. Pierpont Morgan, America's leading exponent of the trust problem. Mr. Sage took occasion the other day to utter some emphatic statements concerning the progress of the combination idea. These views, spoken by the aged financier at the time Mr. Morgan began his first full business day after his European trip, were taken by some financiers as a note of warning.

RUSSELL SAGE.

that the trust problem is being overdone. "First, let me say that I am not antagonistic to Mr. Morgan," Mr. Sage explained. "He and I have been very friendly from a business standpoint for many years, but we differ on the trust question. I have misquoted and my view exaggerated when I was quoted as saying that combinations of all kinds are a menace to the government. That is not right. I believe those which have been formed with the right idea and on a sound basis will live, but the others will fall or die of their own poor construction, become national disaster. Everyone will be more or less affected, and the industrial stagnation will be far greater than if half a dozen small concerns became bankrupt. When a great big company goes under thousands will have to bear the loss.

"Another thing I fear is the centralization of big industries in the hands of five or six men. The control of the industries of our country should be more widely distributed, but if the trust idea continues to progress at the same speed that it has done within the last year all the leading industries of the nation will be left in the control, as I said before, of half a dozen men."

BABOON AS SIGNALMAN.

Railway Switch Signals Accurately Given by a "Missing Link" in South Africa.

In a recent number of Animal Life is a photograph of a baboon performing the work of a signalman. Utshanga, the South African station where this strange railway employee has been seen, is about 25 miles from Port Elizabeth, and Wyde, the official signalman, trained the baboon to such perfection that he was able to sit in his cabin stuffing birds, or while the animal, which was chained up outside, pulled all the levers and points, the signalman having certain signs to denote which lever it was to pull. As soon as the last train at night had gone the signalman, who has lost both his legs, fixed a trolley on the rails and sat upon it, while the baboon pulled it along. "I noticed," writes Mr. Fuller (the contributor of the photograph), "that the baboon never started the trolley pulling with its collar, but used to grip its chain and run on three legs until the trolley got into a good swing. It was very fond of Beer brandy and tobacco. If ever it broke away it never associated with the other baboons as it had been brought from some distance, and baboons seem very clannish."

BABOON THROWING SWITCH.
(Sinnai Railway Employee in South Africa Hard at Work.)

LIGHT REGISTRATION.

Democrats Have a Majority of About 50.

The registration Tuesday was the smallest for several years, only about 60 per cent. of the usual vote being registered. As a rule the white people registered better than the colored voters, something that very seldom happens. The total vote in the city is about 1700, but only 978 names were placed on the books. By districts the figures were as follows:

	WHITE	COL.	D. R.	TOTAL
No. 1—	176	96	126	272
" 2—	51	168	28	247
" 3—	264	37	221	522
" 4—	147	39	132	318
	638	340	507	1485

For the Sickroom!

Very often ice cream is prescribed when the patient has been forbidden to eat all other dishes. Ice cream is then a necessity; probably a means of the patient's recovery, if made of the proper materials.
Made at home in a

Perfess Iceland Freezer (One Motion)

You know it contains nothing that would harm the patient. All parts that come in contact with the cream are coated with pure tin. The freezing takes only three minutes and is so trouble at all.

We guarantee this to be the best freezer made.

"It Goes Right to the Spot."

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, propr. Smith House, Tazewell, Texas, writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years and have found it to be a fine remedy, for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c at R. C. Hard-

UNTIMELY DEATH

Of Miss Mary Ware, After a Long Illness of Consumption.

Miss Mary E. Ware, daughter of Mr. J. Dudley Ware, died Monday night at her home in this city, of consumption. She had been an invalid for four years or more and met her fate with christian resignation. All that medical skill and change of climate could do was done by her fond father, but the dread disease slowly destroyed her young life, until the end came and she fell asleep. Not long ago she was brought home from Asheville, N. C., where she had spent many months in a vain effort to prolong her life. When she came home it was known that she could live but a little while longer, but she bore her sufferings with patience and christian fortitude, with no fear of death. She was a young lady of the most lovable character and her short life of eighteen years was full of love and kindness. She had been a member of the Baptist church since childhood.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. H. Nash. Several songs were sung by Messrs. J. M. Starling, Bailey Waller, Clifton Long and Edmund Starling. Rev. W. L.
Nourse offered a feeling prayer and brief and simple services followed.
The floral offerings were very profuse and unusually handsome. The flowers were taken to the cemetery on a large transfer wagon and laid upon the new made grave.

Then you have no appetite, do not relish your food and feel dull after eating you may know you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25c. Samples free at R. C. Hardwick's drug store.
